

.

NATHAN SPERO - RESUME

165 Pinehurst Avenue
Apt. 4_f,
New York, NY 10033

(212) 568-4230 (H)
(212) 673-5120 Ext. 208 (W)

EDUCATION

B.A., Baruch College, 1943

Graduate Studies in Economics, University of Pennsylvania

WORK EXPERIENCE

Statistician, National Research Project on Productivity and Technological Change, U.S. Department of Labor, 1937-1943

Research Director, United Electrical Workers, ^(UE) 1944-1983

Served on Secretary of Labor Swollenbach's Commission on Incentives, 1944-1945

Co-chaired 13-Union Joint Committee on Pensions and Insurance, for negotiations with General Electric and Westinghouse, 1975-1981

President of the New School for Social Research's Institute for Retired Professionals, 1991-1992

Publications

War Labor Board Brief on Equal Pay for Women on Jobs of Comparable Worth: 1944.

Annual Reports for the UE each year detailing the economic situation in the electronics industry; employment and unemployment profiles; negotiating situation, contract and benefit changes, and education and publicity practices, 1965-1982.

Instructional Pamphlets for UE Locals on ERISA, Social Security, Occupational Hazards, etc.